

POPPLLET

So many ways to use Popplet with your students! It is basically little boxes that you can add to the screen and you can draw or write in them.

Here they used the Popplets as a quick sketch for Beginning, Middle, and End.

Second graders used them for dividing words into syllables. You could use Popplet for prefixes, root or base words, and endings. Students could use the boxes for brainstorming before writing or concept mapping.